

FCCLA Creed Speaking & Interpretation

FCCLA Creed Speaking & Interpretation, an individual event, recognizes members for their ability to recite the FCCLA creed and interpret it within the context of their personal philosophy. This event provides an opportunity for members to gain self-confidence in public speaking while learning the values and philosophy expressed by the organization in which they hold membership.

Event Categories

Junior: through grade 9

Senior: grades 10-12, comprehensive

Occupational: grades 10-12

Eligibility

- Each chapter may submit up to three (3) entries in this event.
- Participation is open to any nationally affiliated FCCLA member.
- Participants must be registered to attend the State Leadership Conference.
- Each entry is $5.

Procedures & Time Requirements

- Participants must attend an event orientation where they will be given a brief overview of the event, draw an identification number indicating the order of participation and review the time schedule.
- Participants may not bring reference materials for use in the holding room.
- At the designated time, an event volunteer will introduce each participant by number and name only. The participant may not offer introductory remarks or concluding remarks. The participant will greet or thank the evaluators and shake their hands either before or after their event presentation.
- The individual participant will recite the creed from memory to the evaluators. There is a maximum of 2 minutes for the creed presentation. Once the participant has begun reciting the creed, he/she may not stop and start over.
- Participants may not use notecards. No other presentation elements such as music or visuals are allowed.
- At the conclusion of the creed presentation, the evaluators will ask the participant to answer three (3) questions concerning the meaning of the creed and how the creed fits the participant's personal philosophy. There will be a 3 minute time limit for questions and answers.
- Evaluators will score and write comments for each entry for approximately 5 minutes. The decision of the evaluators is final.
- Total time required for participation in this event is approximately 10 minutes including presentation, questions and evaluator scoring.

General Information

- No microphone will be provided. No additional set-up is provided.
- Spectators are allowed to observe this event, as space allows. Participants may only observe after they have already presented.
- Participants are not allowed to discuss the event with other participants or receive coaching from any spectators. Doing so will result in disqualification.
- Participants placing 1st, 2nd and 3rd will be announced at the Awards Session and receive cash prizes - $100 for 1st place, $75 for 2nd place, $50 for 3rd place.
- Presentations may not be recorded or photographed, except by the official FCCLA photographer.
- Participants should follow the approved dress code for participation in this event.
