

2018 Georgia FCCLA Fall Leadership Conference
 Georgia FFA-FCCLA Center, Covington
 Leadership Sessions

Workshop Title	Description
Food Safety – Why It Matters Presenter: Ellen Steinberg, PhD, RD, LD – Georgia Department of Education, School Nutrition Program	Think how bad it would feel if you cooked a meal for others, only to have everyone get sick!! Yuck! Whether you enjoy cooking as a hobby or want to pursue a career in the foodservice industry, this workshop will provide useful information and practical advice about food safety and the prevention of foodborne illness. Learn how to protect yourself and others from diseases that can be transmitted through food.....because no one wants to hear "I think it was something I ate."
Be the Exception! Presenter: Byron Green, Art Institute of Atlanta	This workshop will help you understand how to brand yourself to generate wealth!
Find Yourself At ABAC Presenter: Ashlyn Bates, Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College	Join us to see how ABAC is the perfect college destination!
Georgia Cares – Domestic Sex Trafficking Awareness Presenter: Marie Dunn, Georgia Cares	This training will be interactive and engaging- with videos, activities, and discussion around the epidemic of child sex trafficking and what it looks like here in Georgia. As invested community members, this training will educate you on the research related to child sex trafficking, the victimization of these children, statistics in Georgia, and will prepare you to spread awareness and teach others. Our hope is that after the training, you will be mobilized to act and move towards combatting this horrific crime. Whether you choose to tell one person about what you learned, or you volunteer to serve victims after this training, your individual impact will make a difference.
Georgia Grown Resources for Classroom & Cafeteria Activities Presenter: Misty Friedman, Georgia Department of Education	This workshop will provide attendees with resources and ideas available for classroom lessons utilizing Georgia Grown. These resources have been developed by Georgia Department of Agriculture and GaDOE. We will also focus on partnering with the school nutrition program for other resources and outreach opportunities.
Say Yes to FCS! Presenter: Helen Carter, Georgia Association of Family and Consumer Sciences	Trying to decide on your future career? In the Say YES to FACS session, learn about career options that are available in the family and consumer sciences degree field and why it is important to say YES to our profession. There are many occupations to choose from and some may even surprise you.
Get to Know UGA FACS! Presenter: Brennen Salmon, University of Georgia College of Family and Consumer Sciences	In this presentation, attendees will learn more about the University of Georgia's College of Family and Consumer Sciences. They will hear about the majors we have to offer and have the opportunity to speak with staff members who work in the College. This presentation will be both informative and engaging and is for anyone who is interested in attending the University of Georgia.
Volunteerism – Leading Where You Are Presenter: Timothy Carithers, American Cancer Society	The focus of this workshop will be on how and where students can get involved, serve, and lead with the American Cancer Society. The basis of this workshop is that everyone (regardless of age) has a skill and passion that allows them to be a leader.
Lead2Feed – Be Yourself Through Community Service Presenter: Lillian Mitchell, Babb Middle School and Leigh Jackson, Stockbridge High School	The workshop will illustrate how to create an award-winning project through Lead2Feed. The Lead2Feed Student Leadership Program is the nation's leading and fastest-growing free leadership program, attracting more than a million students in 5,000 schools and clubs across all 50 states. Lead2Feed is where leadership and service learning intersect for measurable results. A 2018-2019 National and State FCCLA Outreach Program, Lead2Feed is free, highly developed program that is an asset for any Middle or High School classroom.

Kickin' It With Kale! Farm to School and FACS Presenter: Brooke Lewis-Slamkova, Georgia Organics	This workshop will share how your class can incorporate Georgia Organics and the school garden into the FACS curriculum. Come and see how hands-on learning can help you strengthen your content in a fun and rewarding way.
Find Yourself at Camp with BASIC Training and Summer Leadership Camp! Presenter: Joshua Aaron, Educational Program Specialist, Georgia FFA-FCCLA Center	This workshop will provide an introduction or additional information about BASIC Training as well as Summer Leadership Camp!
Conducting Meaningful Traffic Safety Activities Presenter: Stacey Tisdale, Teens in the Driver Seat	This workshop will cover what makes a great, memorable activity. We will go over why traffic safety outreach is so important, how teens learn, messages that stick, how to create activity goals, and how to measure your success. This is a session with lots of interaction and activities that can be implemented in schools and communities.
America's Next Top Leader! Presenter: Emily Emmons, Vice President of Programs	You can be America's next top leader! Come find yourself as you learn how to look and act like a leader. This workshop will train members on how to speak, dress, and network professionally.
Survivor: Family Edition Presenters: Amory Dowdy, Region 1 Officer and Madison Bookheimer, Region 4 Officer	How does your tribe interact? Does it feel like a day at Disney, or being stuck on an island with hostile natives? Come get tips and tricks to fill up your survival kit – learn ways to make your family successful with Families First!
Male Membership Presenters: Nolan MacFarland, State Secretary and Matt Penrow, State Historian	Come learn how to strengthen male membership in your chapter!
What Did You Say to Me? Presenter: Beatrice Jackson, Region 6 Officer	Learn how to communicate effectively with others and let your body and speech say positive things about you!
Going for the Gold Presenter: Zubaida Adres, Region 3 Officer	Let your inner leader shine through and become an Olympic gold medalist with STAR Events! Go for the Gold at Region, State and Nationals... and maybe even Tokyo 2020!
So You Want to Be an Officer? Presenter: Kristen Hankins, Vice President of Public Relations	Do you want to be an officer for Georgia FCCLA? Come to this workshop to find out how you can become an officer and the steps it takes to get elected!
Living My Best Life After High School Presenter: MiQuan Green, State President	Do you want to be a successful citizen? Figuring out what comes after high school can be tough for any student and together we will discuss ways to make it easier. Join your State President as you learn how to set goals to live your best life!
Find the Missing Pieces with the Planning Process Presenter: Skylar Kitchen, Vice President of Community Service	Putting together an event or project can be pretty puzzling! You cannot complete the big picture if you are missing pieces of your plan. In this workshop, learn how to properly use the FCCLA Planning Process and use it not only in your STAR Events or chapter projects, but in your families, careers and communities.
Exposing the Epidemic Presenter: Rachel Dunbar, Region 2 Officer	The opioid epidemic is raging throughout the United States. Join other members and learn how you can use the Student Body program in raising awareness about this epidemic and the victims left behind.
The Amazing Race Presenter: Rachel Dunbar, Region 2 Officer	Are you ready to learn about the Power of One? This workshop is a high energy learning experience to dive deep into the components of Power of One!
Adviser Session	The Adviser Session will include information for all advisers! Topics will include STAR Events information, and general Georgia FCCLA updates.